

Gold Coast Multicultural Festival 2009

Sunday 11th October, 10am – 4pm

At Evandale Parklands Bundall

Conditions of Event Participation - Quick Reference Guide Patrons, Guests, Performers & Volunteers

- Date: Sunday 11th October 2009
- Venue: Evandale Parklands, Bundall
- Festival Times: 10.00 am to 4.00 pm
- Stall Operation Times: 10.00 am to 4.00 pm
- Parking: Parking for Patrons, Guests, Performers & Volunteers is in designated areas. All directions given by security staff and volunteers whilst parking, or at any other time whilst on the Festival grounds, must be obeyed.
- Site Damage: Any Patron, Guest, Performer or Volunteer that causes willful damage the site, marquees or furniture will be asked to leave the premises immediately, and will be charged 100% of the costs associated with all necessary repairs and/or restoration.
- Force Majeure: The usual provisions of 'Force Majeure' apply for circumstances that are beyond the direct control of the GCMFA Inc. (e.g. event cancellations due to inclement weather). Please note that the Gold Coast City Council has the right to cancel any event conducted on their premises if the safety of patrons at the event is, in their opinion, considered to be at risk.
- Conduct: All Patrons, Guests, Performers & Volunteers are required to conduct themselves in a civil and responsible manner. Any Visitor, Guest or Volunteer deemed to be in breach of this requirement, or breaching Festival Conditions will be asked to leave the premises with immediate effect.
- Due Dilligence: All Visitors, Guests, Performers & Volunteers are required to exercise due diligence and the utmost care whilst on the Festival grounds, in order to prevent harm or injury to self and/or others.
- Alcohol: No alcohol shall be brought into the Festival Grounds. Any Visitor, Guest or Volunteer deemed to be in breach of this stipulation will be asked to leave the premises with immediate effect.

THANK YOU!

Ben Brauer - President

on behalf of the: The Gold Coast Multicultural Festival Association Inc. Management Committee

© Copyright GCMFA Inc. 2009